Parshat Tetzaveh

You bring close your brother Aaron and his sons to become priests for me.
(28:1)

Why was Aaron chosen to be the high priest, rather than Moses? The role of the priest was to represent the people of Israel before God. Aaron, who was chosen for this task, was known to be a man of the people, as the Talmud says, he “loved peace, pursued peace, loved all people and brought them closer to the Torah.” Aaron was able to communicate God’s message to the people because he was genuinely connected to them
